Ahl Tashi are in minority and they also come to Mukhtiyar Hussain because in this village he is only an authoritative person. He did not like shia sect therefore he did not even want to listen their issues and resolve them because of sectarianism. He only wanted to listen the problems of the people belonged to Ahl Sunat sect and resolved them instantly. Ahl Tashi though noted his injustice but they could not do anything because they were in small number and they did not have any power. Mukhtiyar

Hussain did not bother himself about their rights as human beings. He even did not want to see them because he considered Shia sect inferior to his own sect.

How The Issue Resolve:

Sanjh Pakistan's Team conducted a theater drama in the village of Shihan Wala. The representative person of Sanjh Pakistan's Team met Mukhtiyar Hussain and invited him in theater drama. Mukhtiyar Hussain did not want to go to watch that theater drama but his friends forced him to go with them to watch theater drama. He went there just to enjoy it with his friends. In first he did not pay attention to the act of theater drama but just being forced to his friends he watched complete drama. The main lesson of that theater drama was about peace, tolerance, brotherhood and interfaith harmony. Mukhtiyar Hussain liked it very much. He felt a positive change in his thinking and his misconception about sectarianism. After that Sanjh Pakistan's Team invited him in different meetings and in Community Action Project in which they told him about peace, tolerance and interfaith harmony. Mukhtiyar Hussain gradually changed his mind and he realized that all human beings are equal. He felt sorry to his injustices with Shia sect. He said, "Watching the theater drama came to me a positive change and I has become a part of peacekeepers. It was my mistake to ignore Shia sect. My mind has become positive .Now I will treat equally to the people of all sects." Now Mukhtiyar Hussain respects all the people and he takes part in the happiness and sorrows of Shia sect's people. Mukhtiyar Hussain said, "I am willing to stop sectarianism and religious disorder. And especially the Shia community that is in small number in my village, I am happy to resolve their problems as well as participate in their festivals." Shia Community is also very happy with the work of WAKs members because they have created a positive change in Mukhtiyar Hussain's behavior. Now Mukhtiyar Hussain treats all sects' people equally and he comes to know that being an authoritative person in Shihan Wala it's his responsibility to resolve the problems of all people.
